🪪 Summary

I am a dedicated and skilled Full-Stack Web and App Developer with expertise in the MERN stack. Having recently completed my FSc in Pre-Engineering, followed by a comprehensive Full-Stack Web and App Development course at Orasoft Institute, I have developed a strong foundation in both frontend and backend technologies. I am highly honest and committed to my work, eager to apply my knowledge and skills to real-life projects. Currently unemployed, I am ready to contribute and showcase my abilities in a dynamic work environment.
